With a Memoir of the Author by the Editor.

In 2 vols. 8vo. price 1*l.* 1s.

"Perhaps few were better fitted to write a practical experimental commentary on any part of the Scriptures than this author, whose pregnant briefness of remark, and deep acquaintance with experimental religion, would preserve him from prolixity, and enable him to present the most useful view of the subject to the mind. The present posthumous work will be found characterised by all the best peculiarities of the author."—Record.

THE BOOK of ILLUSTRATIONS; or, Scripture Truths exhibited by the aid of Similes, original and selected.

By the Rev. H. G. SALTER, A.M.,

Curate and Lecturer of Glastonbury.

One vol. 8vo., price 10s. 6d., cloth boards,

These illustrations are drawn from Nature, History, the Arts and Sciences, and the Kingdoms of Grace and Providence. It is believed that no similar work has been published since Mr. Spencer's in 1658, of which the most valuable portions are here incorporated.

"The preacher whose style is rather ornate will do well to avail himself of Mr. Salter's help. The simile is too much neglected in ordinary preaching; it arrests the attention, and renders easy of comprehension subjects which when treated in the too plain manner of our day fail to strike the mind at all."—Church of England Quarterly Review.

THE FAMILY WHICH JESUS LOVED; or, The History of Martha, and Mary, and Lazarus In Seventeen Lectures.

SERMONS to a COUNTRY CONGREGATION.

By AUGUSTUS WILLIAM HARE, A.M.,

Late Fellow of New College, and Rector of Alton Barnes.

The Fifth Edition, In 2 vols. 12mo., price 16s. cloth,

"All may read them with profit; but to clergymen, if studied with discretion, they may prove serviceable in no common degree, in regard especially to the lucid clearness of their style, their copiousness of appropriate and striking illustration, their ease and naturalness of manner, their tone of earnest and fatherly affection, and, above all, the admirable skill with which abundant intellectual resources are adapted to the capacities of an unlearned audience."—Christian Observer.
